1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

To correct typographical error, claim 1 has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 10, "psuedorandom" has been changed to --pseudorandom--

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the examiner found no teaching in the prior art that would render obvious the claimed system and a method for locating an object utilizing CDMA and GPS signals including "an early, late and true correlator to correlate the in-phase and quadrature signals with the pseudorandom code", claim 1, "correlating the in-phase and quadrature components with early, true and late correlators, multiplying the generated variable PN code with the early, true and late correlator, and processing the product of the early, true and late correlator and the PN code to determine the receiver location", claim 3, "a correlator for correlating the in-phase and quadrature components by early, true and late correlators, a multiplier for multiplying the generated variable PN code with the early, true and late correlator, and a processor for processing the product of the early, true and late correlator and the PN code to determine the location of the receiver", claim 6.

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
